WASHINGTON LETTER.

Slow Progress in Congress—Five Months most Important Business Neglected—Democratic Rate of Election Laws—Williams—More of His Committee—Free Speech in Alexandria.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The slow progress of business in Congress, is unexampled in the history of the past legislation. Nearly five months of the session have passed, and it is marvelous how little has been done. Of speech making there is no end; if talking would achieve national prosperity and greatness, the United States would have an undisputed claim, to being the most wonderful people on earth. There would be less reason for speaking with severity, of the tardy action of Congress, were it not that there are so many suffering thousands, from whom is withheld what is lawfully and justly their due.

From a statement made in the House a few days ago, it appears there are now on the calendar, a thousand different bills and resolutions, awaiting action. Every day on which the reports of committees are in order, this ponderous list is added to, while but few bills are disposed of, and these few, mostly of no general importance.

More than four months ago, an appropriation bill, entitled the "Immediate Deficiency" bill, was introduced in the House; it was called "immediate" because the relief to be afforded by it, was acknowledged of immediate necessity. After months of delay, it was taken up, passed and sent to the Senate, where it was considered, consequently, referred to the House. Since then up to this date, it remains undisturbed, of yet this bill four months ago, was by common consent, labeled immediate, because of the pressing needs of those to whom the money was due.

The Immediate Deficiency bill, has an item of about $600,000 for the pay of pensioners of the late war. Among the small items, is one for the pay of U. S. Marshals, whose pay is now ten months in arrears. This item, provokes the hostility of the Democratic members to the whole bill. Many of these Democratic gentlemen would about as soon see half the pensioners sent to the poor house, as to vote for Marshals, whom the law pays with authority, to suppress riot, and preserve the peace of the country. There is probably no other bill in our Government, which Democrats so much detest, as the United States Marshal, and their deputies. An orderly election, under the supervision of law regulation, is adverse to Democratic success. The chief cause of the protraction, of the late session of Congress, was the persistent effort of the Democrats, to get rid of the Federal election laws; the same methods of attaching riders to appropriation bills, rendering the election laws nugatory, are resorted to at this session. At the last session the Republicans stood unitedly against impairing the Federal election laws; there are now indications of weakening, on the part of some Republicans. Williams, of Wisconsin, deserves the thanks of the country, for the decided position he has taken in the House, to preserve the integrity of the election laws, and to stay the yielding tendency. The friends of Mr. Williams have the satisfaction of knowing the best Republican talent in Congress, fully sustains his course on the Federal election laws. Senator Edmunds, in one of his most able and argumental speeches, delivered in the Senate, took the same position, and endorsed what Mr. Williams said in his able speech in the House a few weeks ago. Mr. Williams could have had no higher compliment paid to his standing in the House of Representatives, from any quarter, than from so distinguished a statesman as Senator Edmunds.

It should be passed to the credit of the Republican members of Congress, that they have refrained from throwing any obstacles in the way, but have been anxious to vote the necessary annual appropriations. They are not responsible for the unjustifiable delay, in matters of needful legislation; being in the minority they are obliged to wait the movements of the majority.

SENATOR VORHEES—MORE OF HIS EXODUS COMMITTEE.

DEPART.

One of the most unprofitable Democratic investments by this Congress, to manufacture political capital, has been the Committee to investigate the causes of the negro exodus. The expenses of the committee have thus far reached nearly $25,000, which some exceeds the amount, originally authorized for that object. The funds for running the machine are exhausted, and it is now going on credit. The witnesses now summoned are dismissed without money, but paid in scrip, which they sell to the brokers here as best they can. The whole number of witnesses who have been examined, up to the present time, is 147; of this number only 21 were summoned, at the request of the Republican members of the committee. Several of the witnesses brought from Kansas, and distant places, with the expectation of proving facts, greatly to the advantage of the Democrats have been just the witnesses the Republicans wanted. The Republicans rather enjoy the floundering of Senator Vorhees and his co-laborers, on the committee, in their attempts to extricate themselves from the boring business in which they are embarked.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE IN ALEXANDRIA.

Were the old city of Alexandria not almost under the shadow of the National Capital, it might not be important to note a second criminal assault, on the freedom of speech and liberty of the press, in that city, within the past two weeks. As has been stated in a previous letter, Dr. Theo. Foster, editor of the Laborer, was set upon by masked men, beaten, and the entire weekly edition of the paper thrown into the Potomac river. Since then, his house was fired upon, three balls entering his dwelling, but fortunately himself and family escaped unhurt from the would be assassins. The office of Dr. Foster, consists in his publishing a paper, that does not please some of the people in Alexandria. It does not appear that the Mayor or police of the city have made any effort to correct the offenders, and the matter is allowed to pass, as if it were of little consequence. It seems to be the public sentiment, if Dr. Foster does not like the way things are done in Alexandria, he has the liberty to leave, as soon as he pleases. That is a more generous kind of liberty than is sometimes accorded to northern men, especially those accused of interfering with political matters. Dr. Foster has resided in different cities north, and several years ago was editor of a paper at St. Paul, Minnesota. M. F.

—Dr. Strong, of Beloit, has been appointed as Surgeon of the Battalion commanded by Col. Britton. Beloit is having plenty of military honors, but they have some good men to pick from.

—J. A. Denniston had his carriage top taken off yesterday in the cemetery. He left his horse standing alone for a few minutes, and the nag started off among the trees, but was speedily recaptured.

—There was a pleasant little gathering of friends at the residence of Prof. R. W. Burton last evening to greet Miss Carrie. The storm prevented many from attending who would otherwise have gladly been present.

—Pinafore was given at Fort Atkinson last night to a crowded house. Miss Hattie Dearborn, of this city, took the part of Josephine. Her singing was fine, and her acting good, and she won well-merited applause.

—The tobacco case about a case of tobacco still claims attention in Justice Brooke's court, and still the end seems far away. It is a matter of doubt whether the jury will have any summer vacation this year.

—Mrs. Fogarty is a mother, but no more of a one than she was when first arrested. At last reports she was in pretty good health, and seemed to be enjoying her stay in Elkhorn as well as she could under the circumstances.

—Rev. W. P. Stowe expects to go East next week to attend a meeting of the Book Committee, of which he is a member, and will then attend the General Conference of the Methodist church which meets in Cincinnati, and to which he is a delegate.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph James, who formerly lived in this city, and who are widely known here, have been afflicted by the death of their son Ernest, whose remains are to be interred here. The funeral services are to be held at the residence of James Harris to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

—We are in receipt of a circular from San Francisco, which claims to be of interest to the heirs of Nathan Steel. We are sorry that we haven't the time to hunt up the heirs, and put them on the road to fortune, but they are welcome to the circular, by calling for it, paying charges and taking it away.

—Some of the Shopiere citizens were in the city yesterday asking advice as to whether there was any way by which the town could be taxed to raise $2,500 for the relief of some of those who had suffered by the late cyclone. They concluded there was no relief to be had except by private subscription.

—That new piano of Mrs. F. F. Stevens was put to the test again Wednesday evening, there being a little gathering of musically inclined friends, among them being a goodly representation of the McKee family, Miss Battle, Miss Anderson, and others. Most of the music of the evening was instrumental, but songs were given by Mrs. T. McKee and Mrs. Ed. McKee, and the evening was full of varied enjoyment.

—The Monroe Reformer needs to reform. It is trying to convince its readers that "Jesse James, the notorious robber and outlaw, spent last Friday in Janesville and that a lady who knows him well, says that she met him and talked with him." That story does somewhat better if it is told as the scene of meeting instead of Janesville. In writing up items from the telegraphic columns of the Gazette, care should be taken to see where the dispatch is dated.

—They do tell the story, but perhaps it isn't true, that a little child, the pet of one of Janesville's households, who was in the habit of playing and frolicking most of each day in the yard and street, wandered away and was lost. A diligent search was made, and after hours of great anxiety, the father of the little one came across a child in another ward, and the family who had cared for it tried to convince him it was his. The kind family had washed its face, combed its hair, and had so far succeeded in making the child comely and cleanly, that the father doubted whether it was his or not, because there was such a pale look to the face. A close scrutiny at last convinced him it was the genuine article, and he marched home in triumph.

Elegant Accommodations, lowest prices. Astor House, N. Y.

THE AFTON ROAD.

It is understood that in case the citizens secure the right of way for the Northwestern road to Afton, that the construction of the road is to be placed in the hands of John Watson. The work of raising the necessary money by subscription, and contracting with owners of land for the right of way is in progress, and it is to be hoped that all the preliminary arrangements will be soon completed so that the work of construction may commence. No better man than Mr. Watson can be had to build the road.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EYENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 50 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 43 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 40 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 41 degrees above. Rain in the morning. Cold wind.

The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, northeast, veering to southeast winds, cloudy weather, higher temperature, and rising, followed by falling barometer.

CREIGHTON'S OPENING.

This evening, in accordance with the announcement given in another column, J. & D. Creighton have their millinery opening. That department of their establishment will bloom forth with an array of new and charming bonnets, hats, and other adornments for the ladies, and the showing will be one which will draw a crowd, and which will be worthy of a crowd, for elaborate preparations have been made for the occasion.

Helping the Sufferers.

Steps are being taken for circulating subscription papers in Shopiere and Union, for the relief of those who were stripped of everything by the cyclone, and similar subscriptions will doubtless soon be circulated here. Janesville will not be found behind in contributing its share for the relief of those who really need help on account of the losses they have sustained.

Many of those whose property was injured or destroyed have other property left, and can manage to get along comfortably, but there are some whose little all has been taken, and to whom a little relief would come now with great acceptance. The generosity of Rock county people will not allow such to suffer.

THREE MONTHS MORE.

There seems no end of the despoiling of the Evansville cemetery. Craig has already entered on another three months in jail on his second conviction, and yesterday young Loggins, alias Wilson, or Wilson, alias Loggins, it is hard to tell which, was tried at Evansville, before Justice Mills, on a like charge. The State was represented by District Attorney Sale, and the prisoner by Attorney William Smith. He was found guilty and was given quarters at the jail for another three months, he having already served one term of that length. As there are eighty or more other tombstones mutilated, both Craig and Loggins might as well say their trunks taken to the jail, and give up the idea of going on any excursions this summer.

Success on the Stage.

There was a larger audience than on any previous evening to greet Florence Herbert and her company at the Opera house last evening. The play of "Under the Gaslight" was presented in an excellent manner. It is a sensational, highly colored play, full of thrilling situations, with enough of humor in it to spice it well. The company showed themselves capable of handling it well, and the audience seemed delighted. Miss Herbert fully sustained her reputation, and the company supported her ably. It is not often that one finds so evenly balanced a company, embracing such versatility of talent, and while there is no wonderful work on the part of any, yet there is such a uniformity of good work, evening after evening, and such a marked absence of sticks and cheap timber, that every play thus far presented has been rendered in a very pleasing manner.

This evening the company will give "Fanchon, the Cricketer," a play with many of our theater-goers are familiar, but one which one never wearies of seeing, when well rendered, as it surely will be this evening. The company has proven itself here as worthy of the support which the public is giving it, and at the extremely low prices of tickets, the house should be filled.

CITY NOTIONS.

Were man to conform more to the laws of health and of nature, and be less addicted to the gratification of his passions, it would not be necessary to advertise Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites as a restorative for the powers of the brain and nervous system, while the world's progress in enlightenment would indeed be marvelous.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER, - Sirs: I have been practicing medicine for thirty years, and have seen a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the medical profession without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (Sanford's Radical Cure) which was very old to me. I tried it, and the directions to the bottle held me. I was cured. I have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully, D. W. GRAY, M. D., Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa. MISCATINE, Iowa, March 7, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles, and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day with one or two exceptions their names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Averting may succeed in forcing a few sales, but unless the remedy possess undoubted specific properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhalant Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

IS SIMPLY WONDERFUL.

Kingston, Mass., April 1877. I consider COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER the best plaster I ever saw, and am recommending it to all.

C. MORROW, Haverhill, Mass.

I have done my best to get good results from all the medicines I have used, but have not succeeded in forcing a few sales, but unless the remedy possess undoubted specific properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

ENNA, Ill., April 1877. I like the one I used. They are the best plasters I have used, and I do not doubt the world.

Accepted for the two COLLINS' PLASTERS, with the same time ago.

head, nerves, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood sections of the urinary organs, gravel, scrofula, leucemia, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, &c.

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice. My practice is not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it. I do not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trying
